BY WAY OF INTRODUCTION

Did you ever hear the story of how royalty appeared in Mishawaka High School? We mean real royalty, with crowns, velvet, and everything. Yesiree, and this is how it happened:

You see, in 1934, someone thought it would be a good idea to have the Miskodeed staff sponsor an election of the most representative senior boy and girl. They called the winners Miss Kodeed and King Kodeed. The election has become an annual affair.

So, in November, preliminary voting eliminated all candidates except three girls and three boys. The survivors were Alpha Ganser, Betty Kelley, Betty Jo Minegar, Marvin Claeys, Robert Herron, and Russell Rhoads. In the final election, the winners were Alpha and Russell!

All honor did not cease with the election, for a Coronation Ball was held to crown the couple in the Starlight Room (school cafeteria). It was an elaborate affair with thrones, crowns, and even a court.

The editorial board decided that it would be a grand idea to feature Miss Kodeed and King Kodeed in the yearbook; and that is how Alpha and Russell found their way onto the division pages of the 1940 Miskodeed. Let them show you through the Miskodeed, introducing you in turn to the Administration, Organizations, Classes and After-School Activities.

And look! Roger Bock and Betty Jo Minegar drop their votes in the ballot box. (Remember, Rog, you can vote only once.)

Casimer Major and William Hartsock are putting up a new sign advertising the ball. Casimer found that being business manager didn't prevent his lending a hand to the dance chairman.

Donald Schwartz, Jeanne Pullman, and Lavon Woodward, editor-in-chief, form the editorial board, smiling as they count votes.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Emmons

Even though Mr. P. C. Emmons is city superintendent of schools, we like to think that he belongs especially to us since his office is in the high school building. He has a genial smile and a pleasant greeting for everyone, even though his thoughts must be crowded with building upkeep and budgets and increasing enrollment.

Of the staff in the superintendent's office, Miss Ida Betts is secretary to the Board of Education; Mrs. Gerald Sweany, secretary to the superintendent, and Miss Madeline Bock, clerk.

During his first year as principal of Mishawaka High School, Mr. R. R. Myers has found a place of respect and esteem in the hearts of students and teachers alike. For various reasons he is well suited to his position. A Phi Beta Kappa key on his watch chain and Magna Cum Laude on his diploma attest his excellent record at Indiana University where he majored in history and geology.

As for experience, Mr. Myers was successively country school teacher, grade school principal, township high school teacher, before he settled at Hammond, Indiana, for six years.

In Hammond High School, where he did personnel work among boys and produced a state championship debating team, he spent two years on curriculum making alone. Moving to East Chicago, he assumed the newly established, full time supervisorship of social science and commercial subjects. One year later, he became principal of Roosevelt High School at East Chicago, where he served for seven years. At that time he was president of the Lake County Principals' Association.

Russell and Mr. Myers

Miss Cravens and Alpha

Mr. Chapman

One of Mr. Myers' enthusiasms is the Judd Club in connection with the University of Chicago, where he received a Master of Arts degree. The Judd group is a model in discussion clubs on thought-provoking, educational subjects. Another of his prime interests is student government, an idea which has been simmering in all of our minds for some time.

In the principal's office, Mrs. Russell Heeter is secretary and Miss Frances Kabel, clerk.

Miss Jean Cravens, as dean of girls, occupies the key position in the social life of the school; but busy as she is, she never fails to aid a student, boy or girl, who may need her advice on the most important or the most trivial problem.

Mr. Frank Chapman is the administrative assistant to the principal and dean of boys.

ENGLISH: Jean Cravens, head; Mary Elizabeth Bond; Emily Davidson; Lora Duguid; Elizabeth Evans; Douglas Hall; Leila Heimbach; Rebecca Kabel; Wilhelmina Lester; Eldon Schalliol. Margaret Moist and Lola Jane Rosenberger have been borrowed from Mathematics and Languages to take care of the large enrollment in English classes.

LANGUAGE: Zoe Wyland, Latin; Lola Jane Rosenberger, French.

MATHEMATICS: Roy Broman; Margaret Moist; Esther Nugent.

SOCIAL SCIENCE: Frank Chapman, head; Russell Arndt; William Gardner; Rae Hardisty; Arthur Nygard; Ruby Perkins; Russell Stout; Larmon Whitmer.

SCIENCE: W. F. Blakeway; Maurice Kuhn; Lorraine Ulrey; Darl Wood.

Nearly all members of the faculty have to their credit more than the four years of training required of high school teachers. About half of the number have earned the Master of Arts degree. Mr. Arndt holds the degree of Doctor of Laws.

The responsibilities of the English department are by no means limited to class room teaching. English teachers direct four plays yearly and advise the staffs of the yearbook and the weekly newspaper. Mr. Hall does clinical work in speech correction throughout the city, besides supervising debates and speech contests.

A new departure in guidance is the establishment of a guidance committee which is mapping a course for freshmen in the citizenship classes. Moreover, Miss Perkins, Miss Moist, and Mr. Gardner, head sponsors, now have complete charge of arranging programs for members of the three upper classes.

A big event of the school year is Open House in May. There is an Art exhibit, a style show wherein Home Economics students model their handiwork, and a stringed ensemble which plays sweet music. In the shops students and teachers are on hand to explain the projects and the machinery of the vocational classes. The band plays on the front walk. Mr. Middleton is permanent chairman of the affair which draws large crowds of junior high and grade school children in the afternoon and parents and townspeople in the evening. Any department or class may plan an exhibit.

An office practice class has been instituted for advanced commercial students.

It is the intention to add to our staff a member who will serve as coordinator between the school and the industrial plants in the community, so that our graduates and ex-students may find jobs suitable to their training and ability.

STARTING THE DAY RIGHT

At 8:14 a. m. there is a mad scramble through the hall. In the midst of all the confusion comes the ringing of a bell and someone, sliding into his seat with a sigh of relief says, "Whew, I just made it."

So begins a typical morning at M. H. S. Then, just as one settles down to catch up on the sleep he lost the night before, the sponsor teacher, in a clear, cool voice, reads the schedule for the activities period. The 8:20 bell rings, and everyone rushes away to attend an assembly or club meeting.

Best remembered of the assembly speakers were Miss Marjorie Gilroy, a tiny air hostess with exciting tales of sky travel, and Mr. H. C. White, lecturer and scientist, who amazed and delighted everyone by showing the effect of black light on printed fabrics.

Just ask the Junior Girl Reserves what fun they had dressing dolls for their little guests at their Christmas party. The Hi-Y boys must have worked for days on the lay-out of the programs they sold at the South Bend game. The Home Economics Club staged such a lovely Martha Washington tea in the cafeteria, and the traditional Christmas carols and tableaux were beautiful!

All these ambitious projects grow out of half-hour morning gatherings which are designed to work off students' excess energy. (What excess energy?)

In the picture farthest left, Arden Zobrosky is certainly taking advantage of the Girl Reserve rose sale. He is probably saying to Mildred Vollmer, "Please, Midge, pin a rose on me". (And we always thought Arden was bashful.)

What's this! Fred Baker, Fred Trulley, and Robert Newcomer are blowing up balloons to decorate the cafeteria. Party coming up!

It looks as though Jo Ann Walsh is working pretty hard on her debate. Luck to you, Jo Ann.

Wayne Kelley, Robert Wendell, Frances Shearer, and Ruth Weikel entered their T. B. posters in the state contest. Ruth won first prize, too.

Alpha knitting and Russell learning to play chess! Will wonders never cease!

Mercurius

Interesting bits of Roman history and news events — well, they were news about 2000 years ago — appear in that aristocrat of Latin newspapers, the Mercurius. Sponsored by Miss Wyland, it is issued several times yearly with an exchange list from Boston to Los Angeles. The staff and sponsor are pictured.

Alltold

The Alltold is that snappy little paper which is distributed 11 times a semester. Its subscribers were amused and informed this year by such features as: To Maw from Mandy, Salty Yarns from Other Ports, Well, All Right, and Off the Record.

At mid-year the usual six pages were reduced to four considerably larger ones. The change was made possible by the installation of new presses in the print shop.

The staff, which usually numbers fifteen or sixteen, is advised by Miss Heimbach, journalism instructor. The first semester's Alltold was in the capable hands of Dick Steele, editor-in-chief; Elsie Bickel, associate editor; and Howard Crum, managing editor. The second semester staff elected Norma Lutes as editor-in-chief; Phil Lahr, managing editor; and Robert Currey, associate editor. The Miskodeed staff photographer, Walden Jansen, furnished the journalists with a feature picture nearly every week.

The Alltold subscription drive is sure to provide an amusing morning program. It seems that at a picnic, late in the summer of 1918, plans were made which materialized into a school paper that same year. A clever staff turned thespian this fall and gave glimpses of the progress of the paper at five year intervals. The march of time was indicated by song hits illustrating the intervals. By the way, the 1918 bathing beauties at the picnic were priceless!

Home Economics Club

All girls who have completed one semester of class work in Home Economics and have started another are eligible to become members. The club has a membership so large that interest groups were formed, each of which held separate meetings. Crocheting and embroidering vied with scrap book making and just plain social activity. The divisions were rightly named "interest" groups, for every issue of the weekly schedule announced two or three gatherings, and needles, yarn, and crochet cotton peeped out of pockets and lockers.

Shortly before February 22, invitations were received by the members, their mothers, and women of the faculty to attend the annual Martha Washington tea. A lovely tea table actually transformed the cafeteria.

The officers for the year were Elsie Hoffman, president; Virginia McKnight, vice-president; Hope Barrett, secretary; and Elizabeth Goeller, treasurer. Miss Sasse, Mrs. Swickard, and Miss Carlberg are sponsors. The other picture shows interest group leaders.

UPPER RIGHT: Miss Sasse, Virginia McKnight, Elsie Hoffman, Elizabeth Goeller, Mrs. Swickard.

Commercial Club

The northeast wing of the school building looks and sounds like a busy office. In reality, that wing houses the commercial classes which, combined, form one of the largest and most active branches of the curriculum.

Out of the interest of students in the commercial field grew the Commercial Club, with a membership of 150 students. It is the club which sponsors the mass contests in shorthand, typing, and bookkeeping. Very handsome awards are given to the three winners, and these awards are presented at the banquet in the spring. Numerous business men are invited as guests of the club so that secretaries in the making may meet their future employers. Favors and decorations are chosen with especial care for this occasion.

The commercialites are "Always First with the Latest" in the Commercial Hi-Lites, a newspaper published twice a year. Pictures show Hi-Lites staff and a club meeting.

Hi-Y Club

Activities of the Hi-Y started promptly this year with pep sessions arranged by the members; and rooters at the annual Mishawaka-Central game at Notre Dame appreciated the football programs edited by the Hi-Y clubs of both schools.

Due to a larger Hi-Y waiting list, a sophomore section advised by Mr. Blakeway has been added to the club.

One of the high lights of the year was the annual Quad-School Hi-Y dance held in the Palais Royale in South Bend.

In the upper left corner of the opposite page is the Senior Hi-Y group. The others are Juniors, with the officers and Mr. De Croes, club sponsor, in the front row.

Camp Fire Club

A Camp Fire girl glorifies work, seeks the beautiful, pursues knowledge, and gives service. Many high school girls have earnestly and willingly participated in Camp Fire activities. Last summer several of them worked as cabin leaders at Camp Mishawaka earning various honors and awards. At Christmas time they gave a lovely dance. The girls always seem to be doing something worthwhile.

Girl Reserves

Led by Betty Kelley, general club president, the four sections of the Girl Reserves elected their own officers and carried out various service projects. On the opposite page is a picture of the Girl Reserve cabinet.

A most effective Christmas program for the sale of Anti-Tuberculosis seals, a beautiful Easter service, rose sales, personality talks, pot-lucks and beauty demonstrations all added to their social and service activities.

Combining forces for the first time, the Girl Reserves and the Hi-Y gave the "Dance of the Islands," the theme of which was carried out with Hi-Yian decorations.

LOWER, First Row: Jeanette Stievater, Betty Kelley, Marie Shroeder, Joan Winey.

Second Row: Louisa Shoemaker, Selma Heaton, Fern Whitt, Elsie Hoffman, Mary Makielski.

Third Row: Mrs. Heeter, Miss Hackett, Miss Carlberg, Miss Buchanan, Patsy Groff, Maxine McClure, Lavon Woodward.

Engineering Club

Calling all boys who are taking shop or who have taken it! Calling all boys who are interested in developing their mechanical hobbies! Join the Engineering Club!

Every Tuesday night the Engineering Club gave those boys who had taken shop or who were taking it an opportunity to work in the shops, to use any tools available, and to construct whatever they wished.

Mr. Edwin Clarke and Mr. Harold Goppert supervised the work, and the officers of the club were: Roger Bock, president; John Hoffman, vice-president; Calvin Donath, secretary-treasurer; and Dale Snyder, sergeant-at-arms.

Science Club

The Science Club enjoyed an active year which included everything from a dance to a lecture by Mr. Harry White on "Light." On the opposite page, officers of the club are in the first row and section officers are shown standing.

Club members visited various industrial plants and laboratories in the vicinity, did individual student projects, and took a trip to Terre Haute for the annual meeting of the Indiana Junior Academy of Science. Bob Bennett, chairman of the Physics Section, was chosen the All-State Science Student of Indiana, and given an honorary membership in the Academy.

CIRCLE: Bob Bennett, All-State Science Student of Indiana, and Robert Karler, secretary of Junior Academy of Science.

Art Club

The high school Art Club, under Miss Baker and Miss Kabel, has definitely carried out its purpose of art appreciation.

After electing Ruth Weikel president, Norma Lutes vice-president, and Russell Hutchins secretary-treasurer, activities opened with a sketching party in early fall. The annual swimming party at Eagle Lake wound up the social activities.

The Art Club held regular meetings at which time craft work prevailed. Mishawaka students were awed by the beautiful Japanese block prints obtained for exhibition and were elated to find that these color prints were available at moderate prices.

Forgers Club

Recognizing a need among M. H. S. students for knowledge concerning the proper way to find and apply for a job, Mr. Nygard originated the Forgers Club. Organization plans were directed by the club's officers: Maxine Cramer, president, Robert Chamberlain, vice-president, and Kenneth Rideout, secretary.

The year's program included readings from books, reports by individual members, and talks by personnel managers of local factories.

TOP: Mr. Nygard, Robert Chamberlain, Maxine Cramer, Kenneth Rideout.

The Board of Control

The Board of Control is the organization which so capably handles the finances of the school. It is made up of students who are class officers, and of faculty members appointed by the principal. Mr. Hatcher is controller, while Mr. Gardner serves the organization as president.

CENTER, SEATED: Mr. Myers, Jeanette Stievater, Betty Ellsasser, Mr. Steele, Mr. Hatcher, Mr. Gardner, Miss Heimbach, Miss Perkins, Betty Kase.

STANDING: Mr. Kuhn, Robert Kyle, John Richardson.

The Student Council

The Student Council, a forum of students who discuss students' problems, was organized last year by Mr. Wendell Godwin, who was principal at the time. Because other schools having student councils were managed so well, last year's upper class officers visited Shortridge and Arsenal Tech schools in Indianapolis, Muncie High School, and Roosevelt High School in East Chicago to watch the student council system in action.

The Student Council consists of last year's class officers, this year's class officers, and a representative from each of the freshman sponsor rooms. Mr. Gardner is sponsor and Mr. Myers is often consulted.

The council meets every Tuesday and the most important problem discussed this year has been hall traffic.

The officers of the Student Council are: Marvin Claeys, president; Robert Herron, vice-president; Jeanette Stievater, secretary; and Francis Pedrotty, treasurer.

Honorary Scholastic Society

This fall the Honorary Scholastic Society welcomed forty-four new members. At the induction service Mr. Myers spoke on "The Relationship Between Scholarship and Education."

Juniors and Seniors who have maintained an average of ninety percent are eligible to membership. Sophomores may be honorary members.

The officers of the society this year were: Calvin Donath, president; Harold Johnson, vice-president; and Maxine Cramer, secretary.

Sophomore members can be recognized by their bronze pins, which represent an open book, with the raised letters H. S. S. on the front. The juniors and seniors wear silver pins. It is one of the customs of the H. S. S. to present the valedictorian of the Senior class with a gold pin at Commencement.

TOP: Calvin Donath, Harold Johnson, Mr. Whitmer, Maxine Cramer.

National Honor Society

With strained nerves and a tense feeling, the seniors and juniors sat in a special assembly. They were waiting for Mr. Chapman to announce the ten percent of the senior class and the five percent from the junior A's who were to be received into the National Honor Society.

Including the five percent of the senior class which had been inducted into the society as junior A's, about fifteen percent of the graduating class belongs to the N. H. S.

The thrill of achievement and success filled the hearts of these students who had proved themselves outstanding in scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

This year's officers include Jeanette Stievater, president; Charles Shelton, vice-president; and Betty Kelley, secretary. Mr. Chapman and Miss Rae Hardisty are sponsors.

Quill and Scroll

An amateur journalist's highest ambition is to receive an invitation for membership in the Quill and Scroll honor society for high school journalists. In order to be eligible, the candidate must have done some creditable work in writing, editing, or managing a high school publication.

After the prospective member has accepted his invitation, he receives, at an impressive initiation ceremony, the gold quill and scroll emblem of the society.

Forum Club

Discussions on social, political, and economic problems may be heard at any meeting of the Forum Club.

The club was organized to stimulate interest and give experience in constructive discussion not otherwise provided for in school life.

This year's officers were: Phil Lahr, president; Muriel Pope, vice-president; Dorothy Hyska, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Stout acted as sponsor.

Speech Club

Poetry reading and declamation contests, debating, a play, and a dance,—busy people, these Speech Club members. A debate squad twice as large as last year's used the newer panel discussion method to argue about the ownership of railroads and to win second place in conference debating.

Of the three fortunate persons whose names will be engraved on the Van Rie trophy cup, only one has been decided. Jo Ann Walsh's "Plea for Peace" brings her that honor. The Kiwanis Extemporaneous Speech contest and the poetry speaking contest have yet to take place.

PRESENTING THE STUDENTS

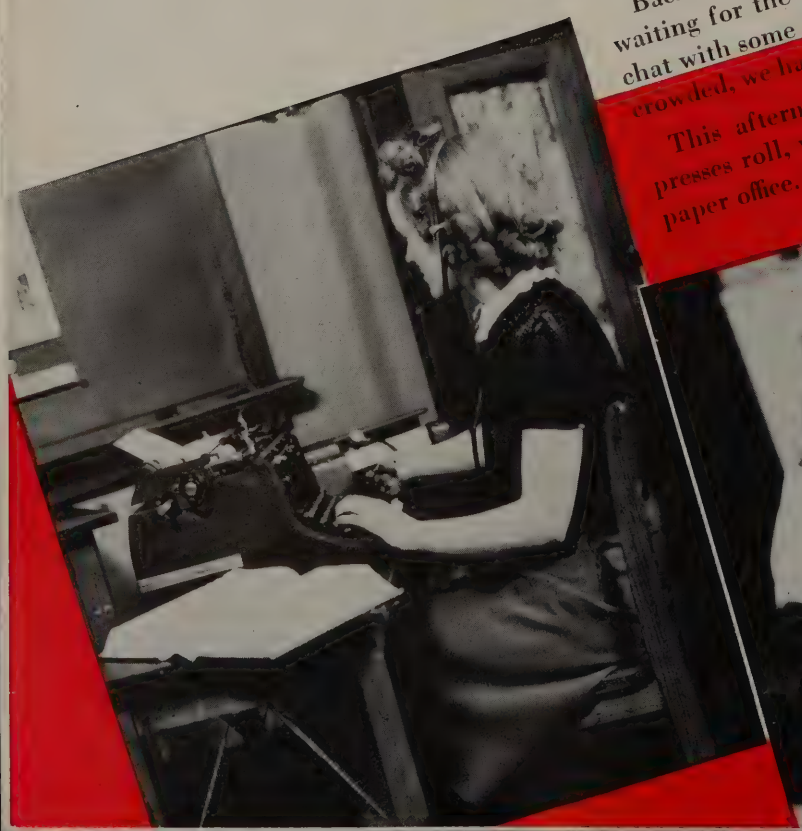
Dear Diary: After such a lively sponsor period, I was certainly calmed down second hour. We had a test in sociology and I simply couldn't remember all the answers. The rest of the morning went fairly smoothly except that one of the hall guides brought me a slip and I had to go see about that deficiency in gym.

It was fun to walk through empty halls and look in classroom doors. In 235, Mary Arnold was drawing triangles or something on the board. You know she has won the sectional and will represent us at the state math contest. She went last year, too. English VIII play casts were rehearsing in every nook and corner—the auditorium lobby for instance. In the office Earl Dodge and Carol De Groff were taking tests which may admit them to Purdue University on scholarships.

About 11:30 there was a terrible gnawing in the region of my stomach, and I could hardly wait to get home and enjoy that wonderful something known as food.

Back early to school means joining the ranks outside, waiting for the doors to open. It does offer a chance to chat with some of the kids, though. Since the halls are so crowded, we have to keep moving to prevent a traffic jam.

This afternoon our journalism class will watch the presses roll, we hope, at the South Bend Tribune newspaper office. Out early! Isn't that something!



Goodness, how busy everyone looks in these pictures!

Eleanor Petersen, left, is learning the basic facts about a dictaphone. Who knows, it may become a partnership.

Next we skip from a busy office to a kitchen. Margie White and Katherine Zirille seem to be doing all right mixing up a cake.

And there's Robert Booher hiding behind an inverted cone and trying to look knowing.

From Geometry to Science—my how we get around. Helen Tagliaferri gazes through the microscope, Ensley Watson looks inside a frog, and Jean Zimmerman is taking a crawfish to pieces.

Even the best of us have to study. Alpha is hard at it but Russell—well, it would seem as though his mind is on the wing.

JUNIORS

Larry Deal, John Richardson, Betty Kase, Sparky Casini

On May 25, the Juniors, three hundred and seventy-six of them, followed tradition by entertaining the Seniors at the Junior Prom in the Palais Royale ballroom. One of the new refreshment booths in the stadium can bear witness to the fact that certain Juniors and their head sponsor, Miss Moist, sold quantities of hot dogs, candy, and such to help make the dance a fine one. The Seniors managed the other booth with Miss Perkins as captain. These same Juniors chose to be different when their class play was presented, for they staged a matinee performance for students only, instead of a second evening presentation. Naturally they hope to be the largest class ever graduated from our high school.

FRESHMEN

Here is the only class which does not organize, elect officers, rate a head sponsor, and figure out ways to earn money. To its members are relegated scattered sponsor rooms and lockers on the third floor. These ten groups do not represent the whole ninth grade of Mishawaka schools, for both Main and Battell schools include ninth graders.

School Life

School life! How complex it is! And how crowded with a variety of faces and activities, not all of which are easy to photograph. The usual gathering of a hundred or more students will hardly fit a 4x5 negative; the auditorium, customary meeting place, is too big and shadowy; class rooms all look more or less alike, for a photograph doesn't reproduce their interesting color schemes; and our pictures in the corner drug store, a student hangout, didn't turn out well for some unknown reason.

However, in each section we offer you a page of informal pictures. They represent events or scenes which are typical or which caught the eye of one of our cameramen.

1. This demountable torso appears now and then to startle the students in biology and health classes. 2. Lee Savage contemplates the balance. 3. Johnny Hoffman steals a few minutes from study to smile at his public. 4. That is Earl Dodge behind the pulley system. 5. The man behind the desk is Charles Rupchock.

RELAXING AFTER SCHOOL

They say that news is made at night. All M. H. S. students agree that this is true. It was at night that the athletic teams made the headlines. Many were the evenings spent under the stars in the grand new stadium watching the football team go down the field to victory: and week after week, the gym was filled with cheering fans who urged the Cavemen to a conference win in basketball.

It was at night that budding actors made their stage debuts, with music by the orchestra between acts.

At night, whenever the crowded calendar permitted, club members found social success in parties and dances. A Sadie Hawkins dance was especially popular.

The vocal musicians and the orchestra gave an excellent spring concert, and the band proved several times on the auditorium stage that its members know a great deal more than marching tunes and the school song.

Evenings are best for certain club meetings, also. Business men find it more convenient to speak before the Commercial Club at that time of day. Only in the evening can shop facilities be made available to members of the Engineering Club. The Art Club pursues its hobbies at leisure; and the Chess Club boys concentrate more easily in the quiet of the evening.

It looks as though Miss Jones and Cynthia Sack are pretty busy, too, doesn't it?

Why the serious look, Jeanette? Oh, I see, Miss Stievater, you are prompting for the senior class play.

There must be a football game under way, for watch Helen Jacqua, Betty Kase, and Madge Rose Brockevelt cheering our football team to victory.

Alpha has skipped off to a dance with Bob Herron, while Russell is busy playing basketball. Of course it is Gale Lord and his orchestra, who furnish the music.

Dramatics

Firecrackers, snakes, ballet dancing, and xylophone solos. That is a seven-word summary of the Senior play, "You Can't Take It With You." This mad frolic was directed by Miss Duguid.

Beware, fellows, because when a woman wants a man, she gets him, according to the Junior play, "Spring Dance." Miss Lester coached the Juniors.

"China Boy," the Sophomore offering, speaks of Munchie Crunchie Ice Cream contests, football troubles, and a missionary's son all in one three-act comedy. Production by Miss Bond.

Miss Moist found seasoned players to handle "The Late Christopher Bean" for the Speech Club. In the story the house maid, Abbie, rescues her beloved paintings from the grasping Haggett family.

Swanky uniforms, maroon coats and white trousers, now distinguish the Ushers' Club. Under the watchful gaze of Mr. Amos, they function at evening programs and basketball games. This year the club drew up a constitution and made plans to present a letter to all members which will carry an additional bar for each year's service.

Our Band of Unique Formations

Featuring unique displays on the gridiron and fine concert work on the stage, the band lived up to its reputation as one of the best school units in Indiana. On the night of the Riley-Mishawaka football game there was an especially beautiful display. With colored lights fastened to their caps, the bandsmen formed a moving rainbow while marching to the music of "Over the Rainbow." They are good at letter formations also.

Mr. Kraning starts training Mishawaka children in junior high and even grade school; and this year 15 high school bandsmen received four year awards. A musical aggregation with a future! In the lower right picture are the seven managers required by the large and active group on the next page.

During 1940-41, Mr. Kraning will take a leave of absence to study at the University of Chicago.

Orchestra

The orchestra is the organization which provides between-the-acts music for all the school plays. Under the direction of Miss Hackett it is growing steadily in size. Three of its busiest members are John Di Giralamo, Richard Pedrotty and William Mull who form a very popular trio. The threesome plays frequently for school activities and local banquets.

The merit system which was introduced last year is still in use. One merit is given for each day's class work and additional merits are earned by outside practicing and special performances. Students earning 1,000 merits receive a letter; those earning 2,000 merits receive a pin. Of the 15 members who played with the district orchestra before the N. C. T. Convention, five were given honor chairs.

PIANO: William Mull.

Choir, Madrigal

Miss Jones as supervisor of music has provided our school, as well as our city, with the best of musical entertainment. The A Capella Choir, which she directs, now numbers approximately thirty-six members. This choral group is well known in our own city and beyond, as well, for their tone quality and superior voices. The choir has been heard in concert several times this season and is well remembered for its annual candle-light Christmas program.

From the A Capella Choir, ten members are chosen, four boys and six girls, who compose the Madrigal Club. The Madrigal Club appears at the bottom of the preceding page and the Choir is below.

Just now, music students are preparing for the Spring Concert. The 150 participants belong to the Choir, the orchestra, the sextet, the girls' glee club, and the boys' chorus. John Di Giralamo will be featured playing a violin concerto. The glee clubs and the choir will sing two numbers, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, and "When You're Away" with orchestral accompaniments.

ATHLETICS

Cavemen on the Gridiron

Gathering his green cohorts together two weeks before school opened, Coach Russell Arndt initiated the hard, bruising grind that was to mold his squad into the final, alert, 1939 Maroons. The team worked hard and when the schedule was completed, the Cavemen had won four games, tied one, and lost five to end the season close to the 500 per cent mark. This record represents a creditable achievement for the squad of inexperienced players who started the season.

Individual playing honors for the season go to Captain Joe Gall, who was selected as center on the All-Conference and Inter-City teams; and Dick Steele, who was named end on the Inter-City eleven.

Graduation leaves nine holes in the ranks of the first three elevens for resourceful Coach Arndt and his assistants, Walter E. Thurston and Raymond F. Struck, to fill next year. Among the graduating seniors who must be replaced are: Captain Joe Gall, an inspiring leader, who was the spearhead of the Maroon defense all season; Harry Heftie, a wiry 140 pounder, who carried the brunt of the Cavemen's offensive maneuvers; Bob Herron an energetic quarterback, whose field generalship led Mishawaka to victory; Lloyd Katterheinrich, a fighting tackle, who was a pillar of strength on the right side of the line; Frank Severa, a hard plunging fullback with grit; Dick Steele, a lanky end that pulled in Heftie's passes; Troy Williams, a rugged end, known for his blocking ability; Donald Cobb, a little guard with determination, who will be remembered for playing in the Riley game; and Richard Good, the happy go lucky understudy of Captain Gall.

The Mishawaka High School football warriors opened their 1939 season in the new stadium Friday, September 8, against Moosehart, Illinois. The Redskins were stiff competition, but the Cavemen fought valiantly as they held the Illinois team to a 0-0 deadlock.

The following week, the Maroons played host to Tolleston of Gary during a sweltering heat wave. Using powerful mass formations, the Gary eleven pushed across a score, after blocking a kick early in the second quarter.

Because of the heat, Coach Arndt decided to wear out the Calumet squad by employing two elevens alternately. This strategy almost brought the desired results, for the closing moments of play found Mishawaka deep in Tolleston's territory; but a blocked kick proved the difference between the two elevens as the Cavemen fell 6-0.

The next Friday night, the gridders of M. H. S. journeyed to Fort Wayne to play the Redskins of North Side High School. Three truck loads of students and many private carloads of fans accompanied the team. With the aid of a bewildering aerial attack authored by two flashy half backs, Bob Cowan and Bob Young, the Redskins dropped the Maroons 25-14. It was in the second period of this game, however, that the Cavemen showed their first offensive scoring spark by marching 60 yards to tie the score 7-7.

Playing their first conference tilt, the Cavemen invaded the Washington Panther's lair the next week-end. The fighting spirit of the Maroons never bogged down, but the machine-like precision of the future conference champions bowled over our lads 20-0. The key to the success of the Panther eleven was savage blocking and tackling that knocked Mishawaka men to the ground time after time in bruising bumps.

In the fifth game, against Goshen, the Maroons gained confidence by ending on the long end of a 12-0 score for their initial victory. Early in the second period, Mishawaka's offense exploded when the Maroon forward wall opened a huge hole and handy Harry Heftie stepped through for a 53-yard touchdown jaunt. Later, after recovering a Goshen fumble, the Cavemen rambled 35 yards to the second touchdown.

An old score was settled in an impressive style the following week, as the Maroons upset the highly favored Elkhart Blue Blazers 6-0. An unorthodox defense caused the Blue Avalanche to fumble on the first play of the game. Mishawaka immediately capitalized on this break when reliable Larry Deal smashed 10 yards through tackle to cross the goal line unmolested. Elkhart, seeking its fourteenth straight conference victory, was checked the entire game by the sterling line play of the Cavemen. Plenty of praise is due to both coaches and players for this startling upset.

Relaxing after the Elkhart victory, the Maroons played ragged ball the following Saturday afternoon, as they dropped a 19-7 decision to the powerful eleven of Culver Military Academy.

Third Row: Fansler, Stuart, Pozwilka, Smith, Richardson, DeVreese, Wachs, Stockberger, Carnes, Good, Savage.

The Cavemen surged back to play some real football in the annual Northern Indiana gridiron classic against South Bend Central. Outscored, but not outplayed or outfought, the valiant Maroons lost to their alert Bear rivals, 13-0. After Central scored its first touchdown, the warriors of M. H. S. stormed up the field in a come-back that had all the earmarks of a great scoring possibility; however, an intercepted pass spelled doom. The Cavemen compiled the better statistical records, but the Bruins' alertness in capitalizing on breaks proved the outstanding factor in this year's contest.

Rallying in the fourth quarter, Mishawaka turned back an unexpectedly strong Clinton eleven from southern Indiana, 14-7. The swiftness and ferocity with which the Maroons returned to score after the Miners tied the count was an example of the fighting spirit of the 1939 team.

Everything from the opening fireworks to the final score turned out as the home-coming crowd desired in the dedication game of Mishawaka's new stadium. Showing a splendid defensive game that was developed through the season, the more experienced Cavemen made no serious mistakes, as they defeated the rampaging Wildcats of Riley, 3-0, on a spectacular field goal by Captain Joe Gall.

Reserves and Freshmen Gain Experience

While the varsity was competing with other schools, the Mishawaka reserves were gaining valuable experience in preparation for next year by playing a schedule of their own. Coach Thurston had charge of the "B" squad which compiled a record of four victories and three defeats.

The freshmen rookies under Coach Struck played the freshmen of other nearby schools; they annexed the title of Inter-city Freshmen C Champions by winning five games and losing one.

M. H. S. Harriers Train for the Future

When the cross country lads reported for practice in the fall, they found themselves minus the services of such outstanding performers as William Heintzberger, Wilford Walters, and Rudolph Lambert; nevertheless, the M. H. S. harriers carried on with all the determination that the staunch hearts of Cavemen are noted for possessing.

Stealing brief moments from his football duties, Coach Thurston helped the boys all he could. For the most part, however, the success of the runners depended upon their own efforts. Although the squad was inexperienced and weak at the start of the season, the team worked hard through all kinds of weather and developed many potentialities for next year.

James Marvel, a junior, had the best record of anyone on this year's squad. "Hillbilly" Jim led the pack home four times and finished second on two other occasions.

Andrew Wauters, a long-legged senior, was also consistently in the front ranks in all the races. Andy's record lists one first, three seconds, and two thirds.

Three other harriers who frequently pushed the leaders hard were Robert Boger, Carl Housand, and William Koontz. These three boys together with James Marvel and Andrew Wauters received letters for their good work.

James Boehnlein, Carl Miller, Roscoe Ransberger, and George Van Houtdreve received monograms for their steady work throughout the season. Maurice Wiseman, a sophomore find, was lost through eligibility rules after the first three meets.

Conference Champions

The 1939-40 Maroons are conference champions!

For the first time in the history of M. H. S., a Mishawaka basketball team won the title of champions of the Eastern Division of the N. I. H. S. C. The coveted crown reposes with other Mishawaka trophies because of the ability of this year's Cavemen to come through when the "chips were down." In fact, the 1939-40 Maroons might be called a pressure ball club, for they generally managed barely to squeeze out a two or three point victory no matter how strong the opposition.

In commenting upon this year's team, Coach "Dutch" Struck scratched his curly hair and said, "The team has never admitted defeat; that, more than anything else, has pulled them through the season."

The Maroons lose through graduation seven of the ten men that made up this year's sectional team. Among the boys who have ended their high school basketball careers are: Roy Bolen, a stalwart backguard, noted for his one-handed hook shots; Joe Gall, a huge center, with the ability to pull down rebounds; "Butch" Gerard, a viciously driving guard, who never stopped playing; Dick Good, who specialized in stealing behind the opposition for sleeper plays; "Rollie" Hesch, an elusive forward that led the team in scoring; John Kurtz, a colorful floor guard, well known for his ball handling and dribbling talents; "Fuzzy" Rhoads, a small dashing forward, who took rebounds away from taller men; and Chuck Shelton, a tall versatile forward, who came through in the pinches. Other boys who won their letters were: Sparky Casini, Jack Deal, Larry Deal, William Fansler, Charles Kopsea, and Francis Pedrotty. The Board of Control awarded nine players and manager, Gene Fore, small gold basketballs in recognition of their outstanding feat of winning the conference championship.

In the season opener on November 24, Mishawaka swung into action against Madison Township in the dedication game of the latter's new gym. The Panthers proved to be a rough and tumble team from the opening tip-off to the final gun. The Maroons lacked the polish they were to acquire later but came through to down Madison 27-18.

On November 29, Roland Hesch led his teammates to a 36-25 conquest of the invading Winamac Indians by garnering 18 points. Then came the Nappanee game in Bulldog land. The fracas was a nip and tuck affair with the Bulldogs finally managing to stick their stubborn noses over the wire for a 29-27 victory.

In a tense, fast moving basketball game packed with thrills, the Maroons tripped a veteran quintet from Central High School the next Friday night 25-24. The game was a see-saw battle all the way with the lead changing hands seven times. Four swift baskets in succession in the final canto enabled the Cavemen to take a four point lead. Stalling desperately as the final seconds ticked away, the Maroons refused three charity tosses in order to protect a diminishing lead by retaining possession of the ball.

Traveling to Goshen December 15, the Cavemen notched up their first conference win by the slim margin of 31-30. William "Butch" Gerard, a substitute guard, spark-plugged the Maroons to victory in the waning moments of the game, when the Cavemen manufactured ten quick tallies to overcome Goshen's nine point advantage.

Coach Struck's proteges tangled with the undefeated Riley Wildcats on the Mishawaka floor, December 21. Starting slowly, the Maroons gained momentum and rolled to their second conference victory, 34-25. Saturday, December 22, the Cavemen quintet invaded Muncie for a hotly contested engagement between two evenly matched teams. Charles Shelton tied the game up with a gift shot in the last minute of play, but the Bearcats scored first in the overtime to annex a 29-27 win.

the Wabash Apaches 24-18 in the afternoon to become a finalist in the night game. In the championship play-off, a listless band of Maroons dropped a 20-18 contest to the Rochester Zebras in the last five seconds of play.

Mishawaka bounced back from its defeat by Rochester with a 36-26 conquest of the Nappanee Bulldogs. This victory avenged an earlier loss and chalked up the Cavemen's third conference triumph. At Plymouth the next night, the Maroons barely nipped the Pilgrims when Roy Bolen calmly pitched two free throws through the hoop for a 37-36 last minute victory.

On their home court, January 12, the Maroons rolled up a substantial lead to rap out a 24-13 revenge over a smaller and speedier Rochester five that tired rapidly.

A dazed Mishawaka High School basketball team dropped out of the conference lead, January 20, following a stunning 20-18 upset at the hands of the cellar-dwelling Elkhart Blue Blazers. The following night the Redskins of North Side of Fort Wayne handed the Maroons their most decisive loss of the season, a 43-34 defeat. Hitting the cords with a swish from all angles, the Redskins put on an exhibition of skillful shooting that amazed and overwhelmed Mishawaka supporters.

Rolling in points from all corners of their home floor, the Cavemen trimmed a highly regarded LaPorte five 38-29, January 26. This triumph moved Mishawaka back into a tie for first place in the conference race. The next night, the Wildcats of Riley High School jolted the jubilant Cavemen back to earth with a 29-24 victory in Riley's abbreviated gym.

In one of the highlights of the 1939-40 season, Mishawaka met South Bend Central in an important conference tilt in the Notre Dame Field House Monday, February 5. The fracas resolved itself into a defensive battle, with the Maroons excelling the Bears because of the ability to make the fast-breaking Central unit play a slow brand of ball. After each successful play of this exciting contest, ardent rooters added to the tumult by sending confetti and cheers high into the air. When the final gun barked out a 24-22 Mishawaka triumph, the Cavemen held an undisputed lead in the conference standings.

The following Friday night, the Cavemen tightened their hold on the conference lead by defeating Michigan City 29-23. The smaller Red Devil fire wagoners were unable to cope with the visiting Cavemen, who played in new maroon suits trimmed in white. On Saturday night, February 10, the strong Froebel Blue Devils, led by a classy colored player named Bud Minor, dropped the Cavemen 37-31.

Playing on their home floor, February 16, the Cavemen sewed up the title of conference champions by nipping the Washington Panthers 37-35 in a tight ball game. The Maroons were hosts to the Elwood Panthers the following night. "Muff" Davis, talented Panther forward, seemed to be the whole Elwood team —but he was a good team—for the Maroons barely edged out a 30-29 victory.

Ending their regularly scheduled season in a home game against Culver High School, Mishawaka managed to hold an early lead for a 24-21 victory.

Playing host to eleven other schools for the sectional tourney on March 1, 2, Mishawaka drew Madison Township as their first hardwood foe of the tournament. The Panthers were 1940 County champions but the Maroons had a hot streak and shellacked the county boys 54-31. In their second round encounter, the Cavemen faced the Washington Panthers who boasted an exasperating zone defense. The Cavemen failed to penetrate the Washington defense successfully being unable to crash in for short shots and failing to connect on long shots. As a result, the score board read: 25-17, Washington.

It is interesting to note that this year, Mishawaka basketball teams have played 74 games —an unprecedented number. Of these 74 starts, 49 have ended in Cavemen victories. The varsity squad participated in 24 of these games, winning 16 for a .666 percentage average.

The "B" team, charges of capable Coach "Dutch" Thurston, won 12 games out of the 20 played. The reserves had a constantly changing personnel, for at different times 15 boys were listed on the starting roster. The "C" team, composed of sophomore boys, completed its basketball season with six wins and seven losses.

The Maroon freshmen completed an extremely commendable season with 15 victories out of 17 starts. Coach Arndt led the "freshies" to their impressive record and may be credited with developing a fine squad for future years.

Cinder Athletes Hopeful

When Coach Walter E. Thurston issued a call for track candidates, 92 boys answered the summons. This group, the largest turnout in the history of M. H. S., began drilling for the track season in the gym while sleet, cold, and blustery winds whistled across the track outside.

After taking an inventory of this year's material, Coach Thurston found that he had an abundance of green aspirants but only ten returning letter men. Since quantity does not insure quality, Coach immediately turned his capable hands to moulding a successful combination from the huge squad.

Among the experienced men who returned are: Troy Williams in the 440 yard run, Russell Rhoads in the dashes, James Marvel in the mile run, Dick Steele in the high and low hurdles, and Herman Heintzberger and William Koontz, mile relay men.

In the field events, the Maroon thinly-clads will rely on a quartet of letter men: Roy Bolen in the high jump, Americo Brioli in the broad jump, Tom Daffron in the pole vault, and Joe Gall in the shot put.

Backing up the veterans in their respective events are groups of promising young athletes. Working hard for the right to compete in the dashes and the half mile relay are Albert DeBeck, Scott Fore, Roscoe Ransberger, Russell Rhoads, and Frank Steele.

Andrew Wauters, a veteran cross country letter man, Robert Boger, and "Chick" Maggioli will vie for honors in the 880 yard run. James Marvel, a junior and a veteran, and Maurice Wiseman, a sophomore with good prospects, will perform in the mile run and do their share of gathering points for M. H. S.

Julius DeVreese, William Fansler, Dick Steele, and Dick Zeller will tangle for the right to perform on the cinder paths in the high and low hurdles. Troy Williams and William Koontz head a group of aspirants in the 440 yard run. Others who will run the 440 and work for places on the mile relay team are Herman Heintzberger, Robert Wachs, Julius Meuninch, and Carl Housand.

Under the direction of jolly Coach Struck, the brawny men will heave the shot. Camiel DeVolder, Joe Gall, Charles Kopsea, Charles Rupchock, and Achiel Van Durman compose the shot-putting crew.

In the first meet of the season, the Gary Invitational in the Notre Dame Field House on April 6, the Maroons finished eighth in a field of nineteen schools. In the next contest on April 10, the Maroon thinly-clads romped home with a 90-29 victory over an outclassed Niles team.

A driving rain sent the cinder stars to the Notre Dame Field House on April 17. Here the Maroons showed improvement in every event, as they defeated North Side of Fort Wayne 58-42. Since the Redskins of North Side placed third in the Gary Invitational, Coach Thurston was pleased with the fine showing of his team.

As the Miskodeed goes to press, the coach and squad are looking forward hopefully to a successful season. The remainder of the 1940 schedule follows:

1. Joe Gall lets fly with a 47 foot heave. . . . 2. Tommy Daffron clears a high one with the greatest ease. . . . 3. Taking time off from their duties, track and cross country managers Charles Collins, Jacques Robinson, Tom Pressler, and Calvin Donath pose for a picture. . . . 4. Bill Fansler goes over a low hurdle like a veteran. . . . 5. Rounding the final curve, Bill Koontz, James Marvel, Herman Heintzberger, and Julius Meuninch come into the home stretch. . . . 6. Duke Brioli gives all in the broad jump. . . . 7. George Pozwilka rolls over the bar for a high jump.

Intramural Athletics Afford Boys Sport Competition

The Boys' Intramural Athletic Association affords all boys not playing in varsity sports an opportunity to participate in passball, volleyball, basketball, badminton, and table tennis. These athletic activities give intramural boys a chance to realize the fun and enjoyment that is derived from sports. The program of activities is directed and supervised by athletic director, Frank M. Steele.

In the fall, Bob Watkins' passball team won the passball championship without dropping a game. The team, along with the volleyball champions, appears upper left.

Roger Bock's team won the upperclassmen's volleyball league, while Bob Rhodes' team captured the underclassmen's league. In a close play off, Rhodes handed Bock his first defeat by scores of 15-13, 7-15, and 17-15.

Three intramural basketball leagues were formed and the basketball championship was decided by a tournament between the three league champions. Bob Wendel's five outscored Herb Volkert's and Bob Eberhardt's quintets to annex the basketball championship. Lower right are the victorious champions.

Late this spring, a table tennis tournament will be held, and badminton will be introduced.

UPPER RIGHT: Howard Muldoon, Roland Hesch.

LOWER RIGHT: STANDING, Marvin Claeys, Robert Wendel, James Futterknecht.

KNEELING: Thomas Doyle, Richard Trippel.

Girls Enjoy Athletics Too

We double dare you to join G.A.A.
We double dare you to come out and play . . .

Starting out the year with this chant, the Girls' Athletic Association persuaded 125 girls to join them in promoting sportsmanship. Led by Lois Sanders, president; Armida Colza, vice-president; Peggy Funk, secretary; and Mary Lou Wylie, treasurer, they started the year with an airplane party at which all new members were initiated. Later in the year, there was a successful skating party at the Ski-Hi Rink and the last social event was a dance on April 12.

All G. A. A. girls await the season of volley ball, speedball, and basketball with great anticipation. Lois Sanders' team, upper right picture, captured both the volleyball and speedball titles while Mary Blasko's team won the basketball championship.

Two of the three awards which all members strive for are local class numerals and letters given to those who have earned 150 and 250 points. The third, a state award, is a wall plaque given to girls who have earned 350 points and have passed ten achievement tests. Only three girls, Lois Sanders, Rosemary Sharpe, and Irma Detert received plaques this year.

The Time-Out Club, now in its second year, is a part of G. A. A. The fifteen members were taught the rules of various games and were given a chance to referee games at noon. These girls appear upper left. Girls lower right have earned letters.

SEATED: Marjorie Claeys, Helen Weinkauf, Elizabeth Honold, Dorothy Shetterly, Irma Detert, Jo Ann Schutt.

UPPER RIGHT: Lois Sanders, Lenora Miller, Mary Godshall, Elsie Kopsea, Marjorie Claeys, Julia Gulyanics.

LOWER RIGHT: STANDING: Joan Winey, Rosemary Sharpe, Mary Lou Wylie.
SEATED: Irma Detert, Lois Sanders, Alice Collins, Elizabeth Vander Wende.

Future Golf Champions

The golf team will smooth the kinks out of its game under the tutelage of Coach William Gardner in preparation for conference matches.

Richard Kelley, Jack Brown, and Kenneth Chamberlain, three lettermen from last year's squad, will form the nucleus of the 1940 quartet. These three small golfers are noted for displaying a high degree of accuracy which makes up for their lack in stature.

Other boys who will probably see action are Dale Metzger, Don Huff, and Van Rogers. Matches are scheduled with LaPorte, Riley and Central of South Bend, Michigan City, and Culver. May 11 and 18 are tournament dates, first an invitational meet at LaPorte, second, the state tournament in Indianapolis.

Mishawaka Racqueteers

Under the guidance of zealous Miss Raaflaub, the Maroon tennis team compiled a 500 per cent average, winning four matches and losing four. Early in the fall, an elimination tournament was held in which ten or 12 aspirants tried for team berths. As a result of the tourney, Bob Kyle gained first position; Francis Pedrotty, second; Donald Behnke, third; and Yale Friedman, fourth. This quartet represented M. H. S. in all of the tennis matches this year.

Francis Pedrotty, an up and coming junior, compiled the best meet record by winning five of his seven conference matches. Although Bob Kyle faced stiffer opposition, he proved his worth by notching up three victories out of six starts.

In the first conference match of the season, Mishawaka routed Goshen 5-0 on the Merrifield courts. Since Washington had no tennis team this year, our courtmen won their second match by default. The next match found an experienced Elkhart team barely edging out our netmen 3-2. The Maroons returned to the victory column September 22, by defeating LaPorte 4-1. Traveling to Michigan City the following week, the Maroon tennis quartet was forced to forfeit the match when darkness halted the conflict. In a close match Mishawaka bowed to Riley of South Bend 3-2.

On the home courts, the Maroon racqueteers were severely set back by Central 5-0. However, in the final conference meet, Mishawaka grandslammed Nappanee 5-0 to help atone for the loss to South Bend.

Scholarship

This page was reserved for late senior news items. We are happy to announce that Lavon Woodward is valedictorian and Mary Jane Cook salutatorian. Unfortunately the senior gift has not been agreed upon. We list the senior members in National Honor Society including those inducted on April 18:

By Way of Conclusion

The little publication room on the second floor is strangely quiet. The pictures are mounted and stories written. We hope you like the result. You met some of our staff members on page four. Here are the others. Walden Jansen, photography editor, did all the pictures except those in senior panels and snapshots. His assistant, Beatty Fisher, is a junior ready to take over next year. Dick Young and Gordon Powell took pictures of school life. Richard Steele did a thorough job as sports editor for he is a journalist and an athlete. Colette Cleary and Mary Jane Cook, senior editors, were invaluable.

Miss Rosenberger, staff advisor, wishes to compliment Lavon Woodward, the resourceful, dependable editor-in-chief, and all other staff members for unfailing cooperation.
